

CALIFORNIA ADVANCED HOMES PROGRAM

BUILDING INDUSTRY STAKEHOLDER UPDATE APRIL 2018

SoCalGas® appreciates your participation in the California Advanced Homes Program (CAHP).

We are pleased to announce additional CAHP funding is now available, effective April 2, 2018. Qualifying CAHP projects enrolled throughout our entire SoCalGas service area are once again eligible for full natural gas/electric incentives.

Our California Advanced Homes Program highlights “best practices” in energy-efficient and sustainable green building techniques and offers financial incentives to help builders and architects create eco-friendly communities for potential home buyers.

SoCalGas serves as a resource for the information you need to build new homes that meet CAHP requirements. Your assigned account representative will explain how you can save money while offering your buyers the kind of environmentally-responsible, dual-energy design they’re demanding.

Let us show your team how CAHP can save you up to hundreds of dollars per unit and help make your bottom line a little greener too. Builders can receive up to $250,000 in CAHP incentives for a multi-family high-rise project, but don’t delay. Program funding may be limited and is available on a first-come, first-served basis - contact your SoCalGas Account Representative today.

Offering programs that can help customers reduce their energy use is just one way we are committed to helping the environment.
